

ST. CHARLES BORROMEO PASTORAL COUNCIL
CHAIRPERSON

John McCarthy and his wife Kate have been members of St. Charles Community for 12 years. They have two sons who grew up in the church and are involved in youth and faith formation programs. They both are Bay Area natives and high school sweethearts. The speaker has been involved in various ministries such as high school ministry, tech ministry, and a member of the Pastoral Council for nine years. He is passionate about building community and growing faith among the next generation. He is always happy to meet new people in the community and would like to hear their vision for where the community should be headed.
